PATH: Co-facilitating person-centred planning which includes friends and family

Aaron Johannes and Shelley Nessman

What is PATH?

PATH is a process in which a facilitator and a graphic facilitator work with a focal person (or organization or team) and their supporters to create a vision of the best possible future, out of which comes a plan that is always “positive” and “possible,” understood by all and no longer mysterious or scary. By the end of the PATH event the focal person or group has communicated where they want to go, what and who they need to support their journey, and how this part of their lives will be part of a bigger future. Those who care about them often say they feel clear, inspired and hopeful afterwards, and get to take on action oriented roles. A PATH is a great tool to bring a network together.

Shelley and Aaron, together and with other partners, have been doing PATHs for individuals, organizations and teams for more than 20 years and it is still a process that surprises and delights them as they watch individuals who think they hate “planning” come to life and families get excited about the future.

Over four days together, in a small group, we will...

- see a PATH being facilitated by experienced facilitators with opportunities for questions
- learn to honor this process as participatory leaders
- learn the steps of a PATH
- have fun with drawing, even if we think we can't drive a straight line (you won't have to!)
- facilitate a PATH for someone
- graphically facilitate a PATH for someone
- have a PATH done for ourselves
- have fun
- get energized
- think new thoughts
- learn about other person centred planning methods
- get a really cool certificate
- become more aware of our own gifts and strengths

Lunches, snacks and drinks are included, as well as all materials and two great books from Inclusion Press.

Consider being part of a team of engaged facilitators and learners for four great days!
