

$150 FREE FOR YOUR RDSP

A one-time grant for BC residents with disabilities

If you are on low-income and have a Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) you may be eligible for a one-time grant of $150 to help your RDSP grow. The RDSP is a matched savings plan for people with disabilities, so with the Endowment 150 grant you will be on your way to saving for your future.

Go to www.rdsp.com or call 604.439.9566 for more details.

This project is run by Plan Institute with generous support from the Vancouver Foundation.

vancouver
foundation

Access RDSP

Change your tomorrow today

The Registered Disability Savings Plan (RDSP) is a Canada-wide registered matched savings plan specifically for people living with disabilities. To learn more go to www.rdsp.com

Free Information and Support on the Registered Disability Savings Plan

1.844.311.7526

www.rdsp.com

info@rdsp.com

ACCESS RDSP SUPPORT:

RDSP & DISABILITY PLANNING HOTLINE

For information about the RDSP or disability planning, call Plan Institute's information hotline.

DISABILITY TAX CREDIT

Before opening an RDSP, you need to have been approved for the Disability Tax Credit (DTC). DABC offers one-on-one support with your DTC and information about the RDSP.

FREE RDSP INFO SESSIONS

RDSP information sessions for individuals, community organizations, and financial institutions.

INDIGENOUS RDSP NAVIGATION

If you are an Indigenous person living with a disability you may be eligible to open an RDSP to assist you in meeting future financial needs. The BCANDS RDSP Navigation program can help you with this process.

With special thanks to the Vancouver Foundation for their support with this project.

vancouver
foundation